-Senor de Mas, late Spanish Minister at Pekin writes of the Chinese in Cuba and in the Philippine Islands, where he has long resided, and says that in Cuba some hundreds of the Chinese have got a few thousand dollars capital; five or six about $200,000, and one is worth $400 000, though it is only a few years since the Chinese colonization began. In the Philippine Islands, where it is older, the Chinese and their race are mixed; they are propri otors of most of the lands in the country, and the natives, less intelligent, sinking into the working population. The Chinese usually n and where they can find wives. In the East Indies they have intermarried with the Malays and the legals, and in the Sand wich Islands they wed with the Kunakus, though the latter are professed Christians. In Peru they are actiling in considerable numbers, and well were it for every State of South Amer ica if the Chinese would come with their in-dustry and love of o.der. If they fled their way into the Southern States, either the negroes will have to quis work or become more capable and industrious.

-The "Bailroad War" for the managemen of the Albany and Susquebanna Baliroad is a prohile theme with the New York papers. A pitched battle was fought on the tract on the 10th just., in which nearly 1200 men were engaged. The fight is thus described: The Eric Company had from 700 to 800 men at the tunnel and holding the station near it. The force of the Albany party at the upper end of the tunnel numbered 400 men. The Erro manager determined to take the disputed ground. A train of two cars was filled with men, numbering, p-rhaps, 250, and sont into the tunnel. No obstructions was met with until the tunnel was passed. At the uper end a rail was found to have been taken up, and was replaced. Then on turning a curve a train with Bamsy men on board was observed approaching. The Erie men say they whistle "down brakes," while the other train increased its speed. Seeing this, the speed of the Erie train was increased, and the two trains struck with a heavy crash. The collision was the signal for the The Albany men rushed upon the Eric men with shouts, and they had scarce y come to blows before the Erie party fled back through the tuenel and over it. The engine backed into the tunnel and returned. Both en gioes were considerably injured. The Brie locomotive lost its head-light and one flagstaff and a part of its cowcatcher, while the latter lost almost all of its prow and was otherwise considerable bruised and thrown partly off the track. While getting the engine in position again it was determined men had chased the Erie men over the tunnel, but they were not in sufficient numbers to attack. After the engine was right ed at was driven through the tuonel; but so much time had clapsed that the Eric monwere rallied and ready for battle again. The co flict was reopened with great fury. Erie men, occupying their own ground, had no intention of giving it up; besides, they were expecting momentarily the arrival of the Forty-fourth regiment. The A bany men. flushed with success, attacked vigorously. Pistois were used, with stones, clubs and fists. Threats, crise and horrid oaths, were unixed so as to be quite unintelligible, except as to their hideousness and profantly. Some of the men were drunk. The fight was continued until about eight o'clock, when the Forty-fourth regiment having arrived, the Albany men left the fie'l and returned to the other end of the tunnel. They were not pursued on account of Injured Innocence.

Congressman Christopher Columbus Bow en, a meek and humble Radical, who has been denounced in these columns as a thief, forger and murderer, sends a telegram to a morning paper announcing that his reply will be through the courts, in which "the proprietors of THE CHARLES ON NEWS will be called upon to substantiate their assertions" Bowen is very kind. The Radi cal Republicans of the North and South might not have properly appreciated the life and services of "the honorable member" had the dark history been recorded only in the columns of a Charleston paper. But when he has appeared in court, and ed before a judicial tribunal, Bowen may properly claim a rich reward as a Radical saint persecuted unto social death by s journalistic sinner. Poon! Stealing fare checks; forging pay rolls; plotting the murder of a "rebel" officer. Is that all? No one would have said a word about it, or have washed this peculiarly dirty linen in punlic, had Bowen not been elected to the Congress of the United States. The eleccrossing the figman signalled that all was right, and the heavily leaded train kept on. When it was near the crossing a special train on the amboy Road came in sight around the embalmed and sent to foreign parts, with on the Amboy Road came in sight around the curve, approaching at high speed. The flar-thousands of dollars a year, to keep comman instantly displayed the red flar, but pany with another poor martyr of the same stamp-Daviel E Sickles.

had the remarkable presence of mind to cut may be nothing more than a blusterous atout off which so slowed them that a gap in tempt to conceal his signal discomfiture he was only a Radical, he was pub licly scored as a murderer and forger, and said not a word. Why should he be more sensitive now that he is a Radical Congressman ?

> And it is passing strange that Bowen sate no price upon his injured innocence. In Hudibras we read that

"The worth of any thing Is just as much as it will bring."

At what figure does Bowen set the dam age done his spotless reputation by the publication of the record of his crimes in THE CHARLESTON NEWS? How much? Shall it be $10 000, or $50,000, or $100. 000? Bay a cool five hundred thousand dollars, or a round million. It will be just as easy, we fancy, to get a verdict for one

Oue thing we can promise. When the trial comes, if come it should, there will be new and startling developments of which no hint has been publicly given. There are still some shots in the looker, and one

MADEMOISELLE FIFIT MILLIONS; OR, THE AD-VENTURES OF HORIESSE MANGIN. By the Count as Dash. New York: D Appleton & Co. Charleston: Holmes' Book House. This marvellous work has all the faults of the French historical romances of the school of Damas, without even the samguine attractions of a Dime Novel. It is useless to say more of a romance which is too weak for the intelligent and too tame

for the vicious. Between the two stools is falls to the ground. Price 60 cents. JEBEMIAH AND HIS LANENTATIONS with Notes Critical, Explanatory and Practical, designed for both Pastors and Poople. By they Henry Cowles, D. D. Now York: D. Apple-ton & Co. Charleston: John Russell.

This volume concludes the series on the Old Testament prophets, and to it is appended a special dissertation on the system of opinions on prophecy, commonly known as Premillenarianism Tho merely specu lailve points of this system are passed over briefly, but those points which bear with practical force upon the nature and design of the present Gospel age are discussed fundamentally. Notes on the writings of Solo mon are in course of preparation, and will constitute the next volume.
